Coming to terms with the loss of a loved one is an emotional time and often you have to arrange a reception at short notice.

Edenwood Place can provide you with the privacy necessary to say farewell to your loved ones and share stories with friends and family.

Our peaceful estate overlooks some spectacular views of the north downs, surrounded by wildlife and the ever-changing seasons. Here we can offer the most peaceful and private setting to celebrate the life of a loved one.

Regardless of how many guests you're catering for, our interlinked rooms, bar and terraces will always make any occasion feel intimate and special.

Our beautiful and stylish venue is easily accessible from the M2, M20 and A229, and just a short drive from both Medway and Vinters Park Crematoria.

FAQ

Do you have parking available at the venue?

We have 48 free car parking spaces available opposite the venue. There is parking along the road, however, this is through-access for the Ambulance service and for larger vehicles so we ask that people be aware of this.

Can we use External Caterers?

All catering is supplied by our in-house Chef. We are happy to discuss alternative menus which can be priced up separately.

Crockery and cutlery is provided. Linen can be hired at an additional price.

Can we bring our own drinks on site?

No. All beverages are to be purchased from the venue.

We have options for a Welcome drink reception, pre-paid or running bar tab [Please ask for more information].

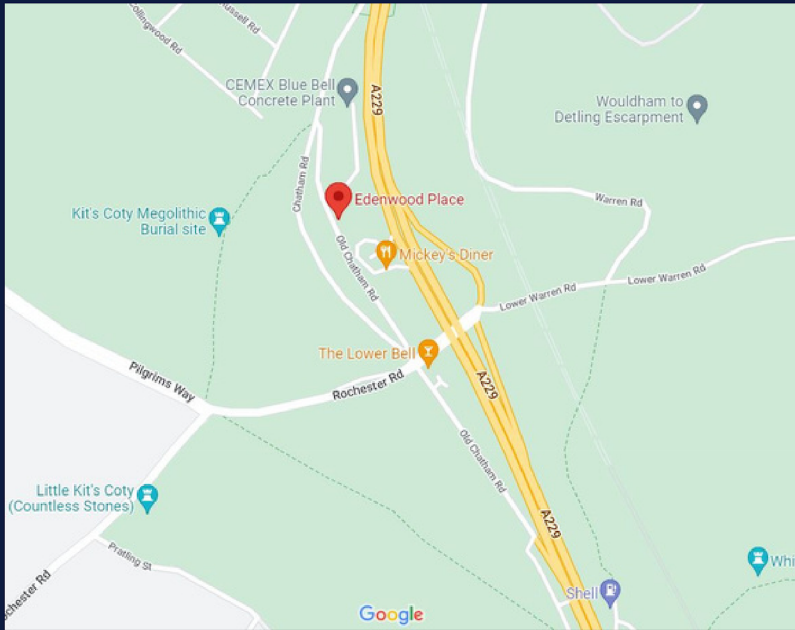

Can we have music played during the event?

We have in-house music which can be played for the duration of your reception. Alternatively, you can create your own personalised playlist either through Spotify, or on your phone which we can connect to our sound system.

Can I bring memorial items to display?

Yes, please feel free to bring any floral displays, or photographs to display during the event. Use of LED Candles only. We have a large TV which can be connected to a laptop to display any video reels or media.

TESTIMONIALS

TC: We chose Edenwood Place for the wake of a relative due to its location and friendly staff. The Venue were very accommodating and staff on the day were conscientious and understanding. Highly recommended.

JB: Edenwood Place were so flexible and thoughtful when we arranged my mothers wake. Thank you to everyone there for making things easy for us to organise at a very difficult time.
